Spooky Happenings in the North Carolina Woods New Hope Valley Railway Halloween Trains!

Bonsal, NC – 7 September 2007 – The gentle woodlands of Chatham and Wake Counties turn into some very spooky places the evening of Saturday, 27 October 2007, when the New Hope Valley Railway runs its special Halloween Trains! Join us that evening for some good fun, and feel free to come in costume. Many things are afoot in our woods from the Ghost Locomotive to the Headless Brakeman to the Vampire's Grave to the Witch's Path where the three evil sisters boil up their potions as the trains pass. Enjoy all of the fun and festivities celebrating Halloween with the sometimes-haunted train crew.

Trains will operate that evening at 4:00PM, 5:15PM, 6:30PM, and 7:45PM with each ride taking about an hour. The fare is $8.00 for all passengers of all ages, and tickets are available ONLY by advance purchase at five convenient locations:
